II. Repent! Jesus wants to come to your home (7-8)

III. Believe! Jesus wants to come to your home (9-10)

Sermon Guide

Luke 19:1-10

▶ How would you react if Jesus said to you, “I must stay at your house today”?

▶ What are some of the first things you would do if you knew Jesus was coming to your house? Would you take more time preparing your heart or your house?

Read Luke 19:1-10

1. How would the average Jew see Zacchaeus? Why?
2. How does Zacchaeus respond to Jesus? Why was it important for Zacchaeus to take actions that supported his change of heart?
3. How does Zacchaeus compare with the rich, young ruler (Luke 18:18-30) in his approach and response to Jesus?
4. Why does Jesus dine with him? Why does this bother others? How does Jesus respond to Zacchaeus' proclamation?

Sermon Guide

Luke 19:1-10

▶ The religious leaders in this story didn't believe Zacchaeus deserved to have Jesus talk with him. How can you fight against the attitude that some people are more deserving of grace while others have fallen too far away?

▶ Jesus said He came to seek and to save the lost. What can you do this week to offer acceptance to those who may have been rejected by Jesus or His Church?

In Luke 19:10, Jesus states, “For the Son of Man came to seek and save what was lost.” Just like Zacchaeus, we too once were lost, but now are found. Praise the Lord for his amazing grace! Listen to the song, read the lyrics, and/or sing along to the hymn, “Amazing Grace.” Following this, spend some time in prayer asking the Lord for opportunities to show His grace to others so that the lost may come to know Him.
