Luke 20:27-44

▶ In Luke 20:27-39, the Sadducees ask Jesus a question about the resurrection. What one question would you like to ask Jesus about life after death?

- ▶ How do you deal with someone who wants to argue a point in the Bible? What if the person has honest questions and you don't know the answer?

Read Luke 20:27-44

1. Who questions Jesus in v. 27? What do they believe about the resurrection?
2. What was the "levirate marriage" referenced by the Sadducees? What was its purpose in Israelite society?
3. What does Jesus teach about life after death (vv. 34-36)?
4. How does Jesus "prove" the resurrection (see Exodus 3:6)?
5. What effect does Jesus' question about the son of David being David's Lord have? Of whom did he ask the question? Why?

Luke 20:27-44

▶ What hope does the resurrection give you? How does the hope of heaven affect your everyday life?

▶ What things should we be doing in order to live both in the present age and to be ready for the age to come? What should we cease doing?

GLORIFY

John 11:25-26 states, "Jesus said to her, 'I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?'" The hope of the resurrection changes everything. Do you believe this? Listen to the song, sing along, and/or read the lyrics to "I Will Rise" by Chris Tomlin.
