

Sermon Guide

Psalm 107:1-9

- ▶ When you are particularly thankful to God, how do you show it?
- ▶ What are you thankful for today? How will you express this thankfulness to God?
- ▶ When have you experienced a period of wandering? How did God deliver and restore you?

Read Psalm 107:1-32

1. What four groups of redeemed people are mentioned in this passage? How should each group respond to God's unfailing love (vv. 8, 15, 21, 31)?
2. Of what time in Israel's history do the lost travelers remind you (vv. 4-9)? With which of these four groups of people do you most identify? From what condition or state of trouble has God redeemed you: Aimlessness? Bondage? Illness? Danger? Do you need God's help in any of these ways now?
3. What does this psalm say about God?

GROW

▶ How can you share your testimony of God's deliverance in your life with others this week?

▶ How can you remind yourself to continue to give thanks to God for his steadfast love and wondrous works, even after the Thanksgiving holiday is over?

▶ The psalmist lists various groups of people who cried out to God in their distress. What need do you need to offer to the Lord today? Do so confidently, knowing that God is able to meet all of our needs (Phil 4:19), just as he did for the various groups of people in this psalm.

GLORIFY

- Spend time as a group praising and thanking God for his steadfast love and wondrous works. Following this time of prayer, sing a song of thanksgiving such as "Great Things" by Phil Wickham.
