

Sermon Guide

Psalm 135:5-7

- ▶ How has the social, political, and economic unrest of 2020 affected you? How has it affected your view of God?
- ▶ What has God taught you during this current season?

Read Psalm 135

1. To whom is the call of worship addressed (vv. 1-2)? What three reasons are given for praising the Lord (vv. 3-4)?
2. How does v. 6 speak to our current crises?
3. What is the difference between the Lord and idols (vv. 15-17)? If idols are so impotent, why would anyone worship them?
4. What is the significance of the four groups called to praise God (vv. 19-20)?

GROW

- ▶ What things in life cause people to question God's sovereignty over all things? What is your answer to these objections?
- ▶ In what ways is God's sovereignty an encouragement in your life?
- ▶ When tough times come, how do you react? Do you submit yourself to the sovereign plan of God or resist and try to do things your own way?

GLORIFY

- Romans 8:28 states, "And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose." Praise God that not only is He sovereign, but He is also good! He is in control of all things and is working everything out for the good of those who love Him. Listen to the song, read the lyrics, and/or sing along to "Sovereign" by Chris Tomlin.
